

LAFAYETTE INN STANARDSVILLE,VA

5-24-20 Preliminary Investigation 1-4 PM
Lunar Paranormal: Cherie, Chris, Danielle, Suzette

This is a dictation of sorts, taken from the static cameras and recorder, through the various rooms we were able to visit. I did not capture any EVP's. Everything written is from the Spirit box. Some questions that we ask are highlighted to help mark the time of the event if you are following along on your own device. These are words and sentences I hear, but that does not mean they are the only response that can be heard. As in when Seth answers us about how old he is, in the recording it sounds like six, we all heard seven. The video recordings are all available if you want to view the SD cards yourself.

I did have issues with my batteries being drained and camera shut itself off a few times. So there are gaps unfortunately. I also really struggled to review the Slaves Cottage. I've sat down to do it several times but I just get such a weird vibe I cant seem to focus. So until I get it done, it is not included at this time. As I said, these are mostly the responses to questions asked by the group as heard through Cheries Spirit box unless other wise noted. Words in parentheses are very clear responses.

SLS Figure appears in first room we start in. (I forgot to write down the name of the room)

"Bart"

Died, dead, yes, no, Perfect

How many Spirits are here? "4", "5"

"Been listening to it"

"Great"

"666" You need to leave! (Cherie) "NO"

"Just say Fuck" another voice says "OK, (Negative Spirits) "Go AWAY"

(Cherie commands it to leave)

Vibe in room changes

"3" spirits still in room. "Destroy"

My camera shuts off missing the whole session where we are touched by the Ghost who reveals her name, "Connie"

I realize my camera had shut off and started to record again.

We are asking questions of Bart and Connie.

Were you a guest here? "was", "liked it", "Rightchousness"

Can you say our names? "Chris", "Sue" Can you say Danielle? "No"

"Fine"

"I'll go get her"

"Cherie"

"Yes"

We say our good byes to the room.

Silver Cannon MONROE ROOM

Union Soldiers room where he committed suicide.

Video had a lot of dust orbs in the beginning but they stopped once we settled in place. Camera is in the back of the room, I am next to Cherie, Chris is across the room from us and Danielle is in the middle of the room. Fireplace is on the right. All voices are male other than noted.

As soon as we get into the room and set up, Cherie turns the SB on and immediately we hear "GET OUT", "Leave us", "Get out"

Do you want us to leave? "YES"

We tell the spirits we are here to find out about them and can't leave just yet.

"Officers"

"Dead, he's dead"

"I'm alive still" (Very fast)

"help" (F)

"3" or Cherie.

"Chris"

"Help"

* Weird light anomaly appears to float out of the picture over the mantel. It's odd in that it looks like the capital letter Q and it slowly spins around as it floats to the floor and towards Cherie. It passes from view. I shared the clip to the group.

"Yes"

Do you need help? "Yes" very clear answer.

What do you need? "food"

"Yes"

How did you die? "You said it" (Suicide?)

"Yes"

Did you take your own life? "No" (we all hear it's a different voice)

How many spirits are here? "5"

"somethings got me"

Is there a dark energy in this room? "Yes", "Yes"

Are you upset about changing the room? A grunt, then in a foreign accent "Nice House", then "Yeah" all rolled one after the other.

Then oddly "but in Church" (Various voices are coming through)

"No"

"Moving"

Was this a Hospital? "Sounds good"

"Fine"

Did you die of Typhoid? "No"

Scottish accent male "I'll take off w'you"

"yes"

We ask for a name "Boyd"

Energy changes again in room

Do you regret it? (killing your self) "NO"

"Just saying, LISTEN" (Angry voice)

“yeah”, “ok”

“Questions?” (three different voices in these responses, not angry)

“LEAVE”

OK, we let it know were done. Cherie asks Do you like Chris? “Yes”

Do you hate women? “Yeah”

We had to decompress on the balcony for a few minutes before heading back downstairs. I believe we all felt the pressure and anger in that room, I know I did.

Cool Pix Large Black Camera static in the Dining Room Camera is positioned across the room to capture both doors. The entry and the door to the kitchen.

The table where it is positioned on had a very consistent high K2 reading (Yellow) the whole back wall did. The only place it dropped to green was in front of the fireplace. No one was investigating in the room, though we do come and go. This camera only videos 29 minutes at a time. I did restart it through out the investigation, as noted.

This is actually the second video N0019.mov, for whatever reason it showed this one first. I forgot about it and started typing, so the following one is the first one if you want to skip ahead a few pages.
